ZOOM PRESENTATION

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 7:00 p.m. EST

Brought to you by the Lehigh Valley Photography Club

Eric Bennett
*“The Photographers’
Journey: Building a
Portfolio, Finding
Your Voice, and Developing Style”*

In this presentation Eric Bennett will share how he began as a photographer and his journey over the last 10 years. You will hear stories of challenges Eric has faced, ways he has grown, and how his perspective of the world has changed as he has used his camera to try and share the value of nature with the world. Eric's love for wild places has taken him to over 30 different countries and on many adventures, so he will have plenty of photographs and experiences to share with us that will surely inspire you all.

Eric Bennett is a full-time nature photographer, author, and conservationist. Through the course of his career that has spanned over 10 years now, he has made two fine art photography books, won several awards including the 2021 Photographer of the Year and the 2023 Abstract Photo of the Year in the Natural Landscape Awards, and has been published many times in On Landscape, Nature Vision, ELEMENTS, and Outdoor Photography magazines.
